MINISTRY PARTNER UPDATES

-Davis is a Missionary in Northern Africa working as a Bible Translator

Since completing seminary and linguistic training, Davis has been living and working among unreached people groups to share the Gospel and translate the Bible. Most people groups that Davis has worked among have almost no known believers among them and no copy of the Bible in their native language. Due to the sensitive nature of the work that Davis is doing and the dangerous places where he serves, we have to be discreet on some of the details we share. You can view his latest update here or here. If you would like to read through his past newsletters dating back to late 2019, you can do so here.

-Mark Raisis; Gator Fellowship at Palm Beach Gardens High School

Mark Rasis has been serving in various capacities on the campus of Palm Beach Gardens High School for almost 20 years. Mark builds relationships with staff and students to evangelize and disciple people with the Word of God. To read his two latest updates, click here and here.
